Mission To prevent domestic violence and sexual assault in our communities through education, shelter and supportive services.

Vision We envision a diverse and healthy society free from domestic and sexual violence. As a vital nonprofit organization, we provide dynamic and comprehensive services to help people build safe lives.

“I love it in shelter because it is a happy place.”
—Boy, age 7

“The Advocates helped me learn new skills and identify the early signs of abuse.”

“I am a woman with more self-esteem, more security also. I now have more personal power.”

Dear Friends of The Advocates:

This coming year, we will recognize our 20th year of working to further our mission and realize our vision of a diverse and healthy society free from domestic and sexual violence. Throughout the past 20 years and into the future, the following remains true: awareness and prevention education are critical to rebuilding safe lives and to ending the devastating cycle of abuse.

This Annual Report highlights the widespread and profound impact of your investment in The Advocates during our fiscal year ending June 30, 2010. The Advocates' staff and board are able to remain deeply committed to changing lives because of the consistently generous support received each year from you in the form of thousands of volunteer hours, in-kind goods and services, and financial contributions.

Last year, your donations supported a wide variety of life-changing services to 348 women and 92 children over 11,667 times. Your gifts enabled the education of 1,946 students from kindergarten through grade 12 by going into the classroom and talking candidly about domestic violence and creating healthy relationships. These are just a few examples of what you have made possible.

The positive effect of your involvement is felt every day in our community. Thank you for your active participation in helping The Advocates to prevent domestic and sexual abuse, and to build safe lives.

Warm Regards,

Margery Friedlander, President

Tricia Swartling, Executive Director

Program & Event Highlights

Walk the Walk: Could you walk in a domestic violence victim's shoes?

Close to 100 community members participate in Walk the Walk every October during Domestic Violence Awareness Month to build awareness of family violence prevention and the creation of healthy relationships.

Volunteers plant the seeds of change!

In 2009 – 2010, 140 outstanding volunteers contributed 4,024 hours of service, valued at $81,486 ($20.25/hr) to further The Advocates' work. We greatly appreciate each and every volunteer for sharing her or his time and talents. Special thanks to Anne and Scott Mason, owners of Ketchum Grill, for graciously hosting the 8th Annual Volunteer Appreciation Luncheon in September, and to guest speaker R.L. Rowsey.

Jackson Katz, an engaging presentation on violence prevention

In November, The Advocates brought Jackson Katz, a leading anti-sexist male activist in the United States, to the Wood River Valley. Community members attended two free community events sponsored by Richard and Judith Smooke, Chris and Margaret Block, and funded in part by a STOP Violence Against Women Act Grant. Katz illustrated how the sports culture, comedy, advertising, and other media contribute to gender violence and the positive role of adult male leadership. Check out his "10 Things Men Can Do to Prevent Violence Against Women" at www.jacksonkatz.com. The tips are useful, empowering and apply to everyone.

Stimulus funds at work to help end family violence

In January, The Advocates was awarded a $43,000, two-year grant from the Services, Training, Officers, and Prosecutors (STOP) Violence Against Women Formula Grant Program. This grant was provided through the Idaho State Police and funded by The Federal Recovery and Reinvestment Act. The Advocates applied these funds towards an existing bilingual shelter staff position and the hiring of two part-time staff to lead support groups for women in Shoshone.

Healthy Relationships for Teens: Idaho's Teen Dating Violence Prevention Project Rocks!

In 2009-2010, The Advocates teamed with the Idaho Teen Dating Violence Awareness and Prevention Project to eliminate the prevalence of teen dating violence. Through ongoing collaborative efforts, we talked to middle and high school students and parents about healthy relationships, and the latest dating trends. The Idaho Coalition Against Domestic and Sexual Violence received national recognition for the program. National Teen Dating Violence Awareness & Prevention Week is the first week of February. Ask the teens in your life what the elements of healthy dating relationships are, or call us to learn more.

Stalking Awareness Month: Know it. Name it. Stop it.

The Advocates offered free Stalking Kits for those who felt they were being stalked, as well as free "Are You Being Stalked?" pamphlets during the annual January observance of National Stalking Awareness Month. Stalking affects 3.4 million victims a year. Stalking kits are still available. Call now for information.

Sexual Assault Awareness Month & Carbonate Hill Climb Race

April's Sexual Assault Awareness Month featured the 2nd Annual Carbonate Hill Climb Race and Barbeque at Hop Porter Park, Hailey. The number of 2010 race entries doubled over 2009, to reach 70. Nearly 100 people took part in the community awareness event that included the race, kids' activities, a barbecue and the awards. Whit Albright and Amy Bingham were the male and female winners, respectively. The 12 and under boy and girl divisions were won by Emmett Say and Jenna Nurge, respectively. A free self-defense class was taught in April by Gary Petersen, 5th Dan Kukkiwon Black Belt and head master of Sun Valley Taekwondo. In collaboration with the Idaho Coalition Against Domestic and Sexual Violence, The Advocates also provided training to local law enforcement and other community service professionals on the dynamics of sexual assault and how to better assist victims.

Economic Education Program Provides Opportunities

Over the last year, 24 women took advantage of The Advocates' new program, Realizing Your Economic Action Plan (REAP). The program received start-up funding from the Wood River Women's Charitable Foundation, the Deer Creek Fund, and private donations. After completing the 12-hour class series, two-thirds of these women opened matched savings accounts to help them realize one of the following personal goals: purchase reliable transportation, pursue additional education, start a business, buy a home, or save for retirement. Through personal savings and matched deposits, over $6,000 has been saved to date!

Participants reported that the program helped them with increased self-esteem, self confidence, and general well being. "I watched women blossom as they learned about credit and the role of money in our society. Knowledge is power," stated Carol Pintler, client services coordinator. The program provides many women with education and money that they might otherwise never be able to access or obtain.

2009 Walk the Walk participants in festive red shoes!

"In a community the size of our little valley, how many people need to have a dynamic shift in energy and attitude for the whole valley to take off and soar?"

ONE person can make a difference."

—R.L. Rowsey
