Dear Friends of The Advocates,

Your support provided over 30 distinct programs to 4,372 people last year. The impact of your generosity is that nearly 100% of the people you supported reported a positive life change as result of their contact with The Advocates. Due to your donations, a boy stopped having nightmares and he and his mother for the first time feel safe. Due to your gifts, a 12 year old girl stopped being a bully, and a young woman who was sexual assaulted started the emotional healing process. Your kindness educated, prevented, and supported so many. Thank you.

Tricia Swartling

giving teens someone to turn to . . .

“When I woke up that morning I didn’t remember what had happened. I was at someone’s house, didn’t have my clothes on, I was terrified.

MY MOM BLAMED ME; she said I was a slut. Some of my friends didn’t want to talk to me. My friend Mary told me to go see you. Thank you for helping me out and for not judging me.

I now know I was sexually assaulted, that it was not my fault, and that I will have to do some work to heal.”

helping women find strength . . .

“YOU SAVED MY LIFE; when I was sitting in my car in front of the cliff ready to drive off because I was pregnant and alone, my abusive husband had left me for another woman, my family back home hated me for taking off and I thought nobody cared about me . . . but for some reason your words stuck in my mind. I could hear you telling me you cared; that there was hope after all. I am here now, 8 months pregnant, in shelter, and thanks to you, I’m alive.”

“I am no longer a stranger to self-preservation and am able to stand my ground and say when enough is enough.”

providing shelter . . .

“When I first arrived to the U.S., I was under the impression that my family would support me, take care of me. But I was wrong. They were abusive, took my money, and wouldn't give me my documents. I am so glad I came to shelter and had the chance to meet you all. You are now my family and you have changed my life.”

and by inspiring hope.

“ I felt guilty all this time for having allowed this to happen to my daughter. I was supposed to help her, protect her, and I had failed. Thank you for teaching me that I do not need to live in the past or in the future. What I have is the present. My daughter and I are doing better now and we have begun to heal. ”

“ I made it . . . I am in shelter. I was so terrified to leave him. Thank you for helping me develop a safety plan. I do not know what the future will hold for me, I just know that THIS IS THE BEGINNING OF A NEW LIFE. ”
